STOCK CLEARANCE SALE!

A settlement of the estate of the late senior partner of this firm is to be made in January. A necessity of the event is the reduction of stock to the minimum. It is to our interest to convert goods into cash at the sacrifice of profit. It must be a clearance sale in the most comprehensive significance of the term—a sale in which neither cost, value nor loss get a moment's consideration. To reduce our immense stock is the only aim, the highest hope, the fixed determination. No man or woman who knows the value of a dollar, who understands this opportunity to save, will let it pass without taking advantage of it to the full as far as prudence and means permit. While many departments are represented here, it would take double the space this ad. occupies to tell of the dozens of other equally attractive bargains. Call on us, it's the only way to master all the facts.

SIX BIG VALUES!

No. 1—Melange Cheviot, 45 inches wide, 50c, original price $1. In all the new fall shades. If you can judge values you are sure wisdom will guide you rightly when you see this unusual bargain.

No. 2—Black Taffeta 27 inches wide, 75c, original price $1. Every yard guaranteed to wear. You may be surprised at the price, but you'll be more surprised at the quality.

No. 3—Onetta Union Suits, 43c instead of 75c. Soft and fine, well made and finished. Closely knit to withstand many washings. You know the garment too well to need further description.

Everything mentioned above on sale now. Of course early comers have benefit of choice. No disappointments await you, complete satisfaction stamped on every offering.

is worth just what it will bring. If you had a barrel of them in the desert of Sahara they wouldn't buy a cup of water. Now we are certain it will here during this sale. It might buy a larger package elsewhere but we are not talking of quantities. We refer to quality and value. The following list tells what a dollar will do in some of our departments. It's not a list of exaggerations but a statement of facts.

A Dollar in the Linen Department will buy a splendid Bleached Damask 72 inches wide in rose, fern, lily, lace, or many other patterns. Original price $1.50. The best bed spread you ever saw for a dollar and no wonder for they've been selling for $1.50.

A Dollar in the Colored Dress Goods Department will buy an exquisite French Broadcloth worth $1.50 or a Fance Cloth as soft as velvet worth $1.50, or a Scotch Mixed "Covert" for walking suits worth $1.50.

A Dollar in the Black Goods Department will buy a French Broadcloth, a Royal Novelty, a Peacock Cheviot, a Camel's Hair, a Milan Cloth, an English Poplin, all 1 1/2 yds. wide and worth $1.50 a yard.

D. HUNT & SON.

When finished and furnished, Hechinger & Co. will have the finest show-rooms in the city.

THAT'S THE LEDGER.

The Rev. T. DeWitt Talman says—"A newspaper whose columns overflow with the advertisements of business men has more influence in attracting attention to and building up a city or town than any other agency known to humanity. People in whose hearts there is business, capital and labor will locate where there is enterprise and energy. It is a strong inducement to build up a town as newspapers will patronize and this power should be appreciated."

THE BEE HIVE

We make a profit on all the Dress Goods we are selling now. We have the most superb collection of dress fabrics ever shown in Maysville. We don't know of a single NEW fabric that is missing in this collection. The finest dress goods house in the World is Arnold, Constable & Co. of New York City, and we have secured the exclusive control of their line for Maysville. Our buyer makes the dress goods department his hobby. He studies all the fashion in dress goods the world over. If he hears of a new fabric coming over from the "other side," a telegram brings us a piece on its arrival in New York. We have sold more fine Dress Goods this year than the old store sold the whole of last winter. Next year we expect to sell more than all the stores in Mason county together. If you have seen our line you cannot deny that we have the finest collection in town. No old goods in the lot; that's why we ask a small profit. Are we not entitled to it?

One of the features of the annual meeting of the Kentucky Grand Lodge of Masons, which began at Music Hall, Louisville, this morning, will be the presentation of handsome jewels to all living Past Grand Masters of the Lodge. This action was decided upon at last year's meeting, and a special committee was appointed to secure the badges. The jewels are of gold and exceedingly handsome, and among those upon whom they will be conferred are Colonel W. LaRue Thomas of Pittsburgh, formerly of this city, who was Grand Master in 1880, and Mr. James W. Staton of Brookville, who held that office in 1884.

CONGRESSMAN KEHOE.

Is Preparing to Make a Hard Fight For Big Sandy River.

Big Sandy River.

Congressman James N. Kehoe passed up on the train Thursday for a tour of inspection of the Big Sandy Valley, in order to see for himself the vast resources of the valley and the great need of slack water navigation. He will go up the Levisa fork and return by way of the Tug fork. Mr. Kehoe said that he believed that by making this trip and familiarizing himself with the river and its tributaries, as well as the vast resources of the valley, he would be able to make a more successful fight for an appropriation at the coming session of Congress.

Mr. Kehoe will try and complete his observations in time to attend the Lawrence County Fair here. If he succeeds in doing this a treat is in store for those who attend the Fair that day, as he will be sure to make a speech.

Mr. Murray & Thomas will give the lowest prices consistent with honest work—and they do no other kind. If in the market for Monumental or any kind of stonework, you will miss it if you miss them.

W. B. Carpenter, President of the W. R. Carpenter Company, the well-known stationers of Cincinnati, is lying at his rooms in the Ortiz Place in a precarious condition. Mr. Carpenter, who has been in ill health for some time, was Saturday the subject of a painful operation at the hands of a prominent surgeon. He stood the ordeal remarkably well and suffered little from the attending shock. The many friends here of this worthy gentleman greatly regret to hear of his illness and hope in a short time he will be completely restored.

J. D. OWEN, one of the Jurors summoned in the Powers trial, was challenged by the defense because of an alleged statement that all "accused" of killing GOEBEL ought to be hanged, but the challenge was promptly overruled by that conservative, level-headed Judge, Mr. CANTILL.

In summoning the Caleb Powers Jury the Scott county Sheriff made a serious mistake. When he went into Bourbon county to find veniemen, he wasn't as well acquainted with the people there as he was in Scott county, and he unintentionally corralled one Republican. To the credit of the prosecution, however, this Republican Juror was promptly challenged.

ALL of the six Jurors accepted from Scott county in the Caleb Powers trial are Democrats, and all are farmers. Only one Republican from Scott county was passed into the box, and he was ROBERT S. COLEMAN, one of the first of the two men challenged by the Commonwealth. The first six men accepted from Bourbon county were Democrats, and of these three were challenged by the defense.

With such an array, who can doubt that CALEB POWERS will have a full, free and impartial political trial?

The Jury in the last trial was composed of one Republican, one Prohibitionist, one Brown Democrat, the balance regular Democrats.

ANOTHER VICTIM.

The press of Kentucky owes a debt of gratitude to Federal Judge Cochran for naming J. H. Shukley $500 for violating the postal laws. Shukley advertised in various Kentucky papers a school of telegraphy, and upon presentation of the advertising bill, represented that he had intended to start the school, but had not succeeded. It is claimed that he got the benefit of the advertising when he did start a school later. Shukley now conducts a school of telegraphy at Shelbyville. This fellow caught The Messenger for several dollars.

WANTS DAMAGES.

Dan Peed the Defendant of a Suit at Owsingville.

The $5,000 damage suit of New Ingram against Dan Peed of Paris is now on trial in the Bath County Circuit Court.

Two years ago Mr. Peed was at Olympia Springs shooting at bull dogs. Some stray shots struck Ingram about the head and face and one in the eye, destroying the sight.

Peed took Ingram to Lexington, had an operation performed and the eye removed, and it is said offered him $200 to settle the case.

It is claimed that Ingram at first agreed to this, but later brought suit against Peed for $5,000 damages.

Peed has engaged able counsel and will contest the case to a finish.

SOCIETY MINSTRELS.

Former Mayville Girl Assists in a Successful Performance.

The local talent at Ashland produced "The Ballet of Honolulu" one evening last week at the Opera-house, the entertainment being given under the auspices of the King's Daughters.

In the "Ballet" was Miss Reesie Horrocks, the charming daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. E. Horrocks, very well known here, who also received a hearty encore in the song, "Oh Ain't Goin' to Weep No More."

The Ashland papers speak very highly of the success of the minstrels, one of the dailies putting it this way:

"There is only one fly in the ointment of our praise of the 'Belles,' and that is the fear that, exhilarated by their success of last night, they may go on the road and leave Ashland desolate, robbed of her brightest (Black) Beauty."

WOMEN AND JEWELS.

Jewels, candy, flowers, man—that is the order of a woman's preferences. Jewels form a magnet of mighty power to the average woman. Even that greatest of all jewels, health, is often ruined in the strenuous efforts to make or save the money to purchase them. If a woman will risk her health to get a coveted gown, then let her fortify herself against the injudicious consequences of cough, colds and bronchial affections by the regular use of Dr. Bowdoin's German Syrup. It will promptly arrest consumption in its early stages and heal the affected lungs and bronchial tubes and drive the dread disease from the system. It is not a cure-all, but it is a certain cure for coughs, colds and all bronchial troubles. You can get Dr. B. O. Green's reliable medicine at J. Jas. Wood & Son, Inc., Green's Special Dispensary.

A REPUTATION.

How It Was Made and Retained in Mayville.

A good reputation is not easily earned, and it was only by hard, consistent work among our citizens that Doan's Kidney Pills won their way to the proud distinction attained in this locality. The public indorsement of scores of Mayville residents has rendered invaluable service to the community. Read what this citizen says:

Mr. C. H. Cooper of 219 West Second street says:

"For many years I suffered from attacks of kidney trouble, and had reason to think I was fast drifting into Bright's disease. I had the great good fortune to learn about Doan's Kidney Pills, and procured them at J. Jas. Wood & Son's Drugstore. The remarkable benefit I obtained from the treatment is a guarantee of the marvelous value and effectiveness of Doan's Kidney Pills."

SAM STAIRS' PHILOSOPHY.

His Comparison of a Kraut-Cutter to a Professional Slenderer.

Over 2000.

Have you been noticing Nancy lately? Nancy is just a woman like many other women. Nancy likes to talk, but she doesn't like it any better than several hundred of her dear sisters—and brothers, too, for that matter. Nancy is very much like a kraut-cutter in the fall of the year. Let us talk about the kraut-cutter. Did you ever notice its small sharp knife? Watch it shave down the end of a cabbage and there is nothing left of it. Did you ever notice what a mess of stuff that cabbage became after the kraut-cutter had done with it—and how loud it smelled afterwards? The sharp tongues of the cutter had gone their work. The kraut-cutter goes from house to house as long as there is a cabbage head in sight. Nancy's slanderous tongue is as the knives thereof. Character is the cabbage it feeds upon and verily it cuts exceedingly fine. Do you know where the kraut-cutter is? Do you know where Nancy is? She is somewhere in the neighborhood making slander-kraut out of somebody's character.

The monthly crop report of the Department of Agriculture shows that on October 1 the average condition of corn for the entire country was the lowest ever reported, being 52.1, as compared with 51.8, the mean of October averages for the past ten years. There was an improvement in the condition of the corn crop during September, and on October 1 the condition was generally above the average.

FOR THE DEFENSE.

Judge Advocate Lemly Concluded Presentation of Testimony For the Government.

CAPT. COOK SHELLEY'S FIRST WITNESS

He Gave Particulars Concerning the Retrograde Movement and Explained the Brooklyn's Loop.

Witness Has Always Regarded Adm. Schley as an Intentionally Brave and Patriotic Officer—Other Testimony.

Washington, Oct. 15.—Monday in the Schley court of appeals, Judge Advocate Lemly concluded presentation of testimony for the government and the first of Adm. Schley's witnesses was introduced. Captain Frank A. Cook, who commanded Adm. (then Commodore) Schley's flagship, the Brooklyn, during the Santiago campaign, was called, though he could not do so. There are some verbal discrepancies between the original draft of this dispatch and the official print of it, and these Mr. Beall translated. Lieut. Beall was the last of the government witnesses, although Capt. Lemly said he would reserve the right to call others if necessary, and he could not do so. He had no son-in-law retired that the first witness for Adm. Schley was called.

Cuban Pilot Testifies.

This proved to be the Cuban pilot, Eduardo Nunez, who told Schley on May 26, 1898, that he did not believe the Spanish fleet under Cervera was in the harbor of Santiago.

Capt. Cook's testimony was a review of the entire campaign after Cervera's fleet, beginning with the departure of the flying squadron from Key West on May 18 and ending with the battle off Santiago July 3. He said that at first it had been believed by both Sampson and Schley that the Spanish fleet was in the harbor at Cienfuegos, and that no information to the contrary had been conveyed to Commodore Schley until the arrival of the Spanish fleet on July 3; that it was Commodore Schley's expectation to meet the Spaniards there, and his care was to have coal on hand for such event; that he saw articles concerning the retrograde movement, and explained the Brooklyn's loop, in connection with a graphic account of the engagement.

Asked for an opinion as to Adm. Schley's bearing as a commanding officer, he said:

"I always regarded him as an enthusiastically brave and patriotic officer."

Cook Ordered the Loop.

Capt. Cook, in his testimony, said he ordered the Brooklyn to make the loop, but he was not sure of the exact time. After making the turn the Brooklyn was receiving the fire of the Spanish fleet.

When Hanna asked a theoretical question as to what would have happened if the Brooklyn had been hauled down, he said with some feeling: "I know that what we did to was entirely successful. If we had done something else I do not know whether it would have been successful."

Episcopal House of Deputies Pass a Canon Prohibiting Remarriage in Certain Cases.

THE VOTE STOOD 182 FOR, 158 AGAINST.

Amendment Making an Exception in the Case of the Innocent Party of a Divorce Rejected.

Resolution Was Adopted Providing for a Standing Joint Commission to Consider Relations of Labor and Capital.

San Francisco, Oct. 15.—The house of Deputies of the Episcopal Church of America, sitting as a committee of the whole, Monday adopted a proposed canon prohibiting the remarriage of divorced persons for causes not arising previous to their former marriage. The canon was passed just as it came from the house of bishops. The vote stood 182 for, 158 against. The amendment of Dr. Huntington, of New York, making an exception in the case of the innocent party of a divorce granted on the ground of adultery was rejected by a vote of 158 to 182.

The result of the vote in the committee of the whole was reported to the house of deputies, who will vote on the whole.

The result, however, may not be the same, for in the house the vote of 30 delegations is required to carry a measure, the divided delegations virtually counting against the canon. No time was set for a final vote by the house, but it will presumably be taken Tuesday.

Election of Missionary Bishops.
Previous to this action in committee of the whole, the house of deputies adopted the resolutions presented by Dr. McKim, of Washington, providing for a standing joint commission of both houses to consider the relations of labor and capital. It is to consist of three bishops, the presbytery and three laymen, and to report its proceedings to each general convention.

The afternoon session of the house of deputies was held behind closed doors, and was devoted entirely to consideration and voting on the five nominations for missionary bishops handed down from the house of bishops.

The election resulted in the choice of the following: Rev. James Addison Inglis, district of Jackson; Rev. Charles H. Brent, district of the Philippines; Rev. Frederick William Kentor, district of Olympia; Rev. Wm. Cabell Brown, district of Honolulu.

The only nomination rejected was that of Rev. Charles Pierce, to be missionary bishop of North Dakota.

The Knights of Honor Saturday paid to Mrs. Anna P. Sulser $1,000, the amount of insurance carried by her late husband, George W. Sulser.

According to the estimates received at the Department of Agriculture, the wheat crop of the world for 1901 is larger than it has been for two years.

The estimate of the agricultural department is 2,671,300,000 bushels. Percehob's corn list of London gives it as 2,711,000,000, and the Bulletin Des Halles of Paris as 2,700,300,000 Winchester bushels.

A doctor has calculated how much it would cost to make an artificial man. He estimates that a pair of arms cost $50, or with the hands articulated cost about $175; a pair of legs, also articulated, cost about $100; a false nose in metal from $80 to $100. For $150 he believes that he could get a pair of ears, just like nature's handwork, fitted with artificial ear drums and resonators.

Complete set of teeth, with palate in platinum, costs from $50 to $80, and for a good pair of artificial eyes about $30 would have to be paid. Thus the total cost of restoring a battered veteran who has lost most of his separable parts would be about $500.

The first steamer to be built upon the Upper Ohio river, and which was constructed at Pittsburgh, was the Orleans. It was built by Messrs. Fulton & Livingston, and Nicholas J. Roosevelt, a grandnephew of the President of the United States, is said to have also been associated with them in that venture.

The Orleans was built for the purpose of introducing steam navigation on Western waters, and the three men had a hard time of it, for merchants feared to trust their shipments with the "smoking" boat. It took several voyages of the boat to overcome prejudice.

The boat was not a long one, and the pilot house was well forward. It had a cabin on the boiler deck. Two large masts for use in case of strong winds were part of its equipment. Between the masts was one smokestack.

The stern wheel was some distance off from the boat, causing her to have a large fantail. She made a trip to New Orleans, and in July, 1814, was wrecked by striking a snag.

RIVER NEWS.

The Courier will pass down tonight for Cincinnati.

The Henry M. Stanley will be up for Foreway tonight.

The recent rains at headwaters may cause a slight swell in the rivers.

Captain William Black, who used to have charge of the Telegraph's engines, died yesterday in Cincinnati.

Negotiations have been on between the owners of the Helen M. Gould, which for the past month has been taking the Columbia's place in the Charleston and Gallipolis trade, and the charterers of the steamer Cando in the Ohio trade for the placing of the Gould in that trade.

The Cando is said to have become too small for the purpose of her charterers and the Helen Gould, which is about the size of the lighthouse tender Goldenrod, is said to be the boat to do the work. The Columbia will come off the Ft. Pleasant Ways within the next few days, when the Gould will be free for further work.

Boats towing Winifrede coal out of the Kanawha don't seem to have been very fortunate. The first was the Winifrede, and was not a success; then the P. W. Woodward went for it, beached herself and bankrupted her owners; several others followed and all failed.

The second Winifrede, R. K. Wells and now the new J. B. Lewis all burned. The machinery in the Lewis was out of the William Ernst, that had been a successful boat. The same engines were the Hawkeye and the Hawkeye No. 2.

The two Hawkeyes and the William Ernst are said to have made their different owners during their long lives a loss of not less than $100,000. The Hawkeye No. 2, when new and owned by Pittsburgh parties, in one trip made returns of $10,000 profit.
